The NEW Adventure In Intimacy is a fast-paced, transformational three-day workshop for couples. You and your partner will learn principles and skills that will become practical, every day tools for vitalizing your relationship, continuously growing your connection, and guiding each other on the path to Relational Maturity.

At the NEW Adventure in Intimacy you will discover and learn:

- New directions from Hedy and Yumi's own marriage. It is their "living laboratory" for how to live in true, deep connection with each other.
- About the philosophy of Martin Buber, an important source of the wisdom that Hedy incorporated in her new way of working with couples, Encounter-centered Couples Therapy (EcCT).
- New ways of accepting and embracing your partner by widening your "appreciative eye" and focusing on their strengths and resources.
- New rituals for energizing your relationship with joy, fun and passion.

The workshop typically fills up four weeks before the workshop date. Register soon to secure your place.

Watch Hedy's TEDtalk at www.YouTube.com/HedyYumi to learn about the three invisible connectors, and insights into what you will learn at the workshop.
